Thousands watched Gelfers.

Thousands of baseball fans at Navin field today watched three eastern golfers stand behind home plate and drive balls over houses more than 50 yards beyond the centerfield wall. They were Francis Cuimet, of Woodland, Mass., James Guilford of Boston and Max Marston, of Springfield, N. J.

The ball game between Detroit and New York was halted about the fifth liming. The three famous golfers, attired in civilian clothes, were escorted to the diamond by Manager Jennings of the Detroit club, one of the many Tigers who plays the Scotch pame. In quick success ion Ouimet, Marston and Guilford drove. Each ball salled over the wall near the exit its and seemed still to be on the rise when it was lost from sight, Guilford had the best luck. The militiamen from Maine and Rhode Island also made the trip. The Connecticut men were saddened by the drowning off Portland of Edward J. Mangan of this city. He lost his life when a small boat fell into the water, when a rope on a crane broke. The body has not been recovered. A committee headed by Commander Hill called at the Mangan home today and presented the family with a purse of $400 raised by the militia from the three states.

The Kentucky cruised as far north as Portland, Me, and southward to Tangler sound, where the target practice was held. Weather conditions, except for the intense heat at Tangler were ideal. Commander Hill expressed himself as much pleased with the trip.

EACH CONTESTANT SUCCESSFUL In Preliminary Qualification Round for National Amateur Title.

Detroit, Mich, Aug. 23.—Interest in the battle for the American amateur golf championship which is being waged on the Detroit Country club course was greatly increased today. The final qualification round of 36 holes, medal play, will take place to-morrow. It will cut the field from 73 players to 32.
